CUHK

The Chinese University of Hong Kong (CUHK) is a leading comprehensive research university. It has a total of 61 departments under the Faculties of Arts, Business Administration, Education, Engineering, Law, Medicine, Science, and Social Science. Currently, it has approximately 21,000 students undertaking undergraduate, postgraduate and doctoral programmes.

College System

CUHK is the only university in Hong Kong with a college system. The constituent Colleges are: Chung Chi College, New Asia College, United College, Shaw College, Morningside College, S.H. Ho College, Lee Woo Sing College, C.W. Chu College and Wu Yee Sun College. Each undergraduate student is associated with one of the nine Colleges. The Colleges are responsible for informal learning, and for academic and cultural immersion for students. CUHK is committed to general education and whole-person development.

Courses

All CUHK courses (those taught in English) are opened to exchange students except for the following restrictions:

1. Faculty of Medicine and Education courses
2. Faculty of Law courses are reserved for Law majors only
3. MBA courses (except for MBA specific exchange agreements)
4. Architectural Design Studio courses (except for architecture specific exchange agreements)
5. Courses with prefix: PHED (except for those with an X after the course number)
6. College General Education courses (except for New Asia/Shaw College students taking General Education courses offered within their own college) i.e. GECC, GEJC, GEMC, GESH, GEUC
7. Student oriented teaching courses, i.e. courses with course number beginning with '0'
8. FINA courses under MSc in Finance Programme offered by the Department of Finance
9. MEDN courses offered by the School of Life Sciences
10. Courses under MSc in Advanced Environmental Planning Technologies / MSc in Hospitality and Real Estate Management / MSc in Housing Studies Programme
11. Any other courses deemed by the Department to be restricted

The Yale-China Chinese Language Centre (CLC) offers Cantonese and Putonghua courses at the elementary, intermediate, and advanced levels. Most undergraduate exchange students can take a maximum of 6 units of Chinese proficiency courses (2 courses) in each term without paying additional tuition fees. Postgraduate exchange students need to pay tuition for taking Chinese proficiency courses. Results of CLC courses will also be shown on the student transcript.

Course Load

Minimum: 9 units (3 courses) per term

Maximum: 18 units (6 courses) per term

Note: Most CUHK courses are 3-unit each. The average course load of former exchange students was 4 courses per term.

Courses offered in 2015-16 can be used as a reference to what will be offered in 2016-17 and are available at www.cuhk.edu.hk/rgs -> Teaching Timetable / Classroom Booking -> Full-time Undergraduate (2015-16) -> Teaching Timetable.

Most 3-unit courses are composed of 3 hours of lecture or 2 hours of lecture and 1 hour of tutorial per week. Criteria for assessment may include any one or a combination of the following: attendance, class work, written work, laboratory work, field work, research papers, tests, examinations, and any other assessment.

Orientation

The orientation is organized to assist students in adapting to the new environment at CUHK. It covers information on the curriculum, study life, Chinese culture, Hong Kong society and support services offered by the Office of Academic Links and CUHK. In addition, this will be a great opportunity for students to get acquainted with each other.

Housing

Undergraduate exchange students will live in on-campus housing and are assigned to double or triple-occupancy rooms in college managed hostels. Living with local students will help students with the transition to a new environment and immerse into the Chinese culture. On-campus housing is automatically assigned to admitted students, additional application is not required. Each room is equipped with highspeed internet access.

Cost of Living

There is often the misconception that studying at CUHK is expensive. In fact, living on-campus at CUHK is extremely affordable as student accommodation and various facilities are heavily subsidized by the Hong Kong SAR Government. The following table shows the approximate living cost at CUHK for 1 term. For a list of fees payable prior to arrival, please refer to our website.

Item	Amount in HK Dollars
Accommodation	$ 5,446.00
Hostel Deposit (refundable)	$ 1,000.00
Caution Money (refundable)	$ 450.00
Books and Supplies	$ 12,600.00
Meals	$ 23,100.00
Local transportation	$ 2,500.00
Visa Application Fee	$ 500.00
